CHINA TOURIST EXPRESS VISA FOR UNITED KINGDOM NATIONALS

- China New Rules:
 - All applicants between the ages of 14 to 69 (inclusive) must attend the China visa centre to have their finger print scanned as part of the visa process. Regent Visas will help you with this as part of our service which includes lodging and collecting your Chinese visa application. Regent Visas is an officially registered Agent with the Embassy, and by using our services you will bypass the queues.
 - However, if the applicant is applying for a Single or Double entry visa for one of the four categories below, then you do not need a fingerprint scan, and therefore do not need to attend the appointment.
 - Tourist (L), Business (M), Family visit, Crew (C)
 - We are able to lodge at the China Visa centres in London and Manchester.
 - Contact us to arrange an appointment at the relevant centre
 - The China Visa Centre now operates lodging visa applications on a first come first serve basis. Regent Visas, however, has a set daily appointment time, Monday to Friday. This will save you a lot of time that you spent at the Visa centre. Kindly call us to arrange an appointment.
- Passport
 - Be valid 6 months after the entry date in China.
 - Has to have at least two blank visa pages.
 - If the applicant is a dual national then both original passports must be supplied
 - If the applicant is a dual national and one of the passports is British, then the visa must applied for in that passport, but both passports must be supplied. Also supply a copy of the other passport photo details page.
 - NOTE: If holding Isle of Man passport then you must choose UNITED KINGDOM as your Nationality when completing the visa form online.
 - NOTE: If holding Jersey passport then you must choose UNITED KINGDOM as your Nationality when completing the visa form online.
- A clear photocopy of the applicants passport Bio info page(s), this includes the photo, and previous China visa.
 - If you have a valid China visa in another passport then supply that actual passport as well.
 - If the applicant has a China visa which is valid for 3 months or more, then it must be used and a new visa cannot be issued. However, if it is valid for less than 3 months a new visa can be issued, but the applicant must supply a letter addressed to the Embassy asking for it to be cancelled and the reason why.
 - If a previous expired visa is in another passport then supply a copy of both the visa and the photo page of that passport. If not available include a letter to the Embassy explaining why it is not available. You still need to provide a photocopy from the current passport.
