CHINA WORK VISA STANDARD VISA FOR UNITED KINGDOM NATIONALS

- New China Rules:
 - All applicants between the ages of 14 to 69 (inclusive) must attend the China visa centre to have their finger print scanned as part of the visa process. Regent Visas will help you with this as part of our service which includes lodging and collecting your Chinese visa application. Regent Visas is an officially registered Agent with the Embassy, and by using our services you will bypass the queues.
 - We are able to lodge at the China Visa centres in London and Manchester.
 - Contact us to arrange an appointment at the relevant centre. If you require to be served at the visa centre as a priority ahead of other clients, then kindly add in addition to your order our Priority Pass product.
 - The London visa centre is only Tuesdays and Thursdays.
 - In order to obtain an appointment at the China visa centre in Manchester, we will need the completed application emailed to us we will then forward to the consulate and after they confirm that the details are correct they will give us an appointment date. The Manchester visa centre is only open on Tuesday.
- Passport
 - Has to have at least two blank visa pages.
 - Be valid 6 months after the entry date in China.
 - If the applicant is a dual national and one of the passports is British, then the visa must applied for in that passport, but both passports must be supplied. Also supply a copy of the other passport photo details page.
- A clear photocopy of the applicants passport Bio info page(s), this includes the photo, and previous China visa.
 - If you have a valid China visa in another passport then supply that actual passport as well. Also supply a written statement requesting it to be cancelled, and the reason why.
 - If a previous expired visa is in another passport then supply a copy of both the visa and the photo page of that passport. If not available include a letter to the Embassy explaining why it is not available. You still need to provide a photocopy from the current passport.
 - If the applicant has a China visa which is valid for 3 months or more, then it must be used and a new visa cannot be issued. However, if it is valid for less than 3 months a new visa can be issued, but the applicant must supply a letter addressed to the Embassy asking for it to be cancelled and the reason why.
- Visa Application Form
 - You must first create your own account on the China Visa centre website and in order to complete the visa form.
